An Lester Trumach - The Packet Ship

Dear Parents

Wednesday... and the rest of the school are in the hall enjoying Image Theatre's production of The Sword In The Stone. It feels like the whole school. Everybody. Everybody that is except Mr G! I've been sent to my office to get the newsletter written. "It's late again and it's no excuse saying there's too much end of year business to deal with – you're not allowed out until it's done!" And it's no good me explaining the Arthur story is one of my favourite – at least the children thoroughly enjoyed the presentation... And the volunteers who took part with the professional actors were great!

The theatre followed another major event that took place in y0 – the return visit of Queen Victoria last week was marked by her knighting Riley's Granddad – she dubbed him 'Sir Help-a-lot'. She also sat for her portrait ... and we thought Camilla's was particularly accurate.

Sunday 10 July 2016

And we're now only a week away from our Sponsored Cycle Circuit around Swanpool. We hope to see as many of the school family taking part as possible. If you are willing and able to help in marshalling or counting laps, etc please let us know and make sure you arrive promptly (for 08:45) so that we can go through safety and counting procedures for the ride to start at 09:00.

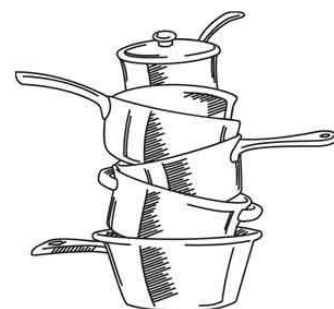

I'd like to give heart-felt thanks to all of our sponsors – the children's T-shirts are now on sale in school (£5) – and thanks, especially to Steve at Falmouth Cycles who has very generously offered two prizes for a raffle:

1. A Falcon Invader children's cycle (worth £140)
2. A Full Cycle Service (worth £30)

Raffle Tickets will be on sale tomorrow and all of next week – we will draw the prize-winners on Friday 8th July – so someone may be lucky enough to do the ride on a new bike!

School Kitchen Sale

Don't forget next Friday 8th July is our grand kitchen jumble sale, come along between 1.45 and 2.30 on Friday to see what's on offer! We'll be in front of the kitchen if the weather is fine, in the hall if not. A few people have donated their own unwanted kitchen stuff to add to our stall, if you would like to do this too then that would be great! See you there!
