

An Lester Trumach - The Packet Ship

2017-2018

Number 17

22 January 2018

Dear Parents

In the heart of the winter and evenings still close it was good to receive a hint that spring is around the corner, when we were contacted last week with news of plans for this year's St Piran's Day festivities. Cornwall's National Celebration falls once again on a week day, Monday 5th March and we are looking forward to taking the whole school and as many of the school family who wish to join us down to the town centre to take part in the event.

We will be learning the Falmouth Furry dance steps and the words of Trelawny (first verse and chorus in Cornish) in school and then on the day walk down to meet the other dancers at the Methodist Church so that the Parade is able to leave The Moor at 10.00, dance along Webber St, on to Prince of Wales Pier and then back up Lower Killigrew St to return to The Moor where children will form a huge circle (or two!) for the Newlyn Reel and the Cornish Meeting Dance.

There will be refreshments and story telling before we return to school – hopefully, and weather allowing, with another treat on the way. Full details will be sent closer to the day, but in the meantime it would be great if children practiced the words overleaf at home (they'll begin learning pronunciation this week!).

Because Marlborough takes a full part in the St Piran's Day celebration, it would be great if our children were well represented in the ...
